THE HISTORY OF LAPUA .22 LR RIMFIRE

For over 70 years, Lapua has supplied competitive rimfire shooters with the world’s best .22 LR ammunition. Today, Lapua continues our commitment to all rimfire competitors, and works tirelessly to further improve our world renowned products.

Lapua made its first .22 rimfire ammunition just after WWII in 1947.

In a short time, from World Shooting Championships to the Olympics, Lapua ammunition has become synonymous with accuracy and victory. Lapua had assumed its place at the top of shooting competitions, where it has remained to this day.

Lapua introduced its .22 LR ammunition in its signature blue box where it quickly became a legend among rimfire shooting competitors for its outstanding consistency and accuracy. With products such as Match Grade and Championship, Lapua became world-famous for match-winning results. Lapua took the rimfire ammo technology even further, developing production technology that ensures the ammo maintains its extreme level of quality. In addition, Lapua was the first manufacturer to introduce variations in bullet diameter to their .22 rimfire ammunition, allowing shooters to more precisely tune their ammunition to their firearm platform.
